

Submission 92

It should be mandatory that at interviews of employment statutory declaration be signed regarding sexual harassment prevention and instant dismissal if this is broken. And 2 to 3 times a year this is addressed to all staff. This should also include outside work hours eg stalking. Texting offensively inappropriate behaviour towards other staff